A Christmas Carol Shadow

Return to Merry Ole England and that fateful Christmas Eve when Scrooge was transformed by the Spirits of Christmas into a kind and generous soul. Then who would've wanted to kill the old man the very next night? There's a whole village of suspects including his own nephew, the poor clerk and his wife, a half-crooked maid, and the local schoolmaster.

It's tradition with a twist!

GREAT REINDEER HOAX!!!

We've all heard the proof that Santa exists because he ran over Grandma with his reindeer. But new evidence has surfaced that Grandma's death was no accident. Grandpa's been acting awful screwy, and then there's Uncle Louie...or was it Cousin Mel? Find out who saw Mommy kissing Santa Claus and who's gettin' nuttin' for Christmas!

The Elf Who Knew Too Much

There's turmoil at the North Pole. Comet has organized the reindeer who have gone on strike! Depressed, Santa has been on a feeding frenzy, and now his principal elf, Endorfin, has been electrocuted. How will the toys get finished in time for Christmas? And who will deliver them?
